“ Antonio was so kind, so empathic, and so interesting. I'll really miss our occasional run-ins at Pacific Place, his curiosity, and his friendliness. It's so hard to believe that he's gone.

“ To the family of Antonio ... my heart aches along with yours in the loss of such a wonderful man that we all had the pleasure of being touched by his presence in our lives. I am a resident at Antonio's workplace, and over the years, Antonio became a good friend. He had a smile and laugh that beamed and resonated for days. Antonio had a heart of gold that made him compassionate and caring towards others.

Antonio, as you return to your Creator, please know that the memory of you will always live in the hearts and minds of those whose lives you touched. 'Requiesce in Pace', my dear friend ... until we meet again.

*Through love and friendship,
