“ Debra has always called me her Lil sis. If we were dating our boyfriends had to be friends which they were, and they were on the football team. We had so much fun just hanging outside at night and Rooster would always try to hang with us and we always tried to get rid of him (but he would tell on us) Debra I'm gonna miss you! 😭😭😭 this is hard!!! Sleep on sis no more pain😭😭

“ Debra my friend, my church family, my Sunday ride partner, my meet at the food giveaways, I will truly miss you. We have broke bread together and celebrated many events. We shared music and books. And I like many others truly enjoyed your baking. God wanted you and there is no more pain. You are running, shouting and have a good ole time. Love you

Gonna miss you! Your incredibly sunny spirit and stories were phenomenal. I loved the way you corrected me ALL IN THE NAME OF LOVE! Until we meet again; REST ON SWEET SOLDIER..

Momma Deb, I miss all of our long talks about anything and everything and everything in between. You were always so real and present about yourself present and past. Although we were only together for a season, your walk with Christ during your challenging time with Cancer I admired so much. Even when I would call you just to say hey momma Deb I love you. You always had a positive word. I thank god for you.
