“ Dearest Gwen and Family, From the first time I met your Mother in Little Rock Arkansas . I could tell she was full of Life and energy. She was her own person ,lots of personality. She would have her high heels on and dressed to the nine..I'm thankful to God I had a chance to meet her and her husband.Moms are very Special people.Thank God you had her in your life for many,many years. What a blessing! I'll be thinking about you and your family and saying a pray.

Peace and Love Sister in Law,

Carol

*Awww Wow, Gwen, I am just now reading this message and I am so Godly sorrowful for your loss of your beloved mother...
I remember her kindness and how much that she was a very beautiful people person....
She always exemplified graciousness and poise in every way and aspect in life.... May you find comfort in knowing that she truly loved the Lord with her whole being....
I send you and your entire Family my most deepest and heartfelt sympathy, prayers, hugs, and love....
I will forever keep you all lifted up before the Lord in Prayer...
I remember when we were attending Church at Greater Divine Guidance Church on the corner of Sutter and Pierce Streets which was at Miracle corner....
Prayerfully and humbly submitted by:
Miss Patricia T. Smith "Pat"*
