

Frank Abdul Rahmaan

January 30, 1946 - April 19, 2026

Frank Abdul Rahmaan Sr., 80, passed away on April 19, 2026, in Oakland, CA. Born January 30, 1946, in West Oakland to Charlie and Esther Jenkins, he graduated from McClymonds High School and went on to earn both his undergraduate and law degrees from UC Berkeley. A proud member of the State Bar of California and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, he built a distinguished career as a self-employed attorney with practices in Oakland, Los Angeles, and San Jose.

He served his community with integrity and purpose. Beyond the law, he was an artist, poet, singer, teacher, and devoted reader with a deep love for philosophy and religion. A lifelong sports enthusiast, he coached football and track for his children and mentored countless young people through Pop Warner and high school programs, leaving a lasting impact on many lives.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Jessica Abdul Rahmaan; his parents; and his siblings Arthur, Alvin, Charlie, Hilda, Velma, and Rose. He is survived by his children Esther, Anjali, Ayyub, and Frank Jr.; his daughter in law Tyree; and his granddaughter Sanari. He will be remembered for his strength, wisdom, creativity, and unwavering commitment to uplifting others.

Private services will be held in Houston. The Abdul Rahmaan family thanks everyone for their prayers and support.

“ The Pinkard and Holcomb Family send love to the entire family during this time. Esther and her entire family have always shown us love and support and I feel like it was just yesterday that Esther took me and Ezinda to meet her parents while we were students at UC Berkeley. Her parents embodied black excellence and they should rest peacefully knowing that they instilled that in their children and the individuals who were blessed enough to cross their paths. Rest in power King.
