

Rosie Lee Crawford

March 27, 2015 - August 11, 2015

Rosie Lee Crawford was born March 27, 1924 in Hollywood, Arkansas to Sue her biological mother (deceased) and the late Robert Hill, Sr. As a teenager Rosie relocated to Oakland, California where she continued her education and was raised by her dad Robert and mother U.T. Hill, both preceded her in death. Rosie later united in Holy Matrimony with the late James Crawford, they spent many loving years together until his passing in 1985.

Rosie accepted Christ an early age, United with holy cross Baptist Church in Oakland California under the leadership of Rev. Mac Hollis where he served as a usher and also a member of the hospitality Ministry. Rosie also enjoyed the fellowship with the Morning Star Church of God in Christ in Oakland California where Rev. Taylor was Pastor.

Rosie career advantages were numerous in California over a 50 year span; her employment consisted of working as a private housekeeper for many families who adored her. She's kept in touch with many families over the years. Rosie was very passionate about helping people; she would spend the next 14 years working for the City of Oakland Companion Program where she gave special attention to her senior clients, sharing her "humorous" wit and contagious smile to all she came in contact with. Rosie loved to fish and was an avid Gardner. She had a green thumb but garage sales were her favorite.
