“Daddy I love you it's hard to believe that you're Gone it's seems like yesterday we were laughing at the crazy humor of you saying don't play me for a cheeseburger when I'm a big Mac you used to take me to the bookstore and I would read for hours. I miss our Saturdays growing up where we would go to the gas station on Saturdays and eat donuts and drink cappuccino and read the comments I miss you I glade u are dancing in heaven your memories will live for ever in my heart
